

works$

grantseeking basics for artists

7pm tuesday, august 21, 2007

presented by the Foundation Center; free!

for individuals involved in the arts and looking to fund any type of arts-related project, such as to complete a project, mount an exhibition, put on a performance, or conduct research. participants will learn how to identify funders in the arts, explore fiscal sponsorship, and create a step-by-step plan to find funding for your needs as an individual grantseeker. this workshop is presented by the Foundation Center, the nation's leading authority on philanthropy, connecting nonprofits and the grantmakers supporting them to tools they can use and information they can trust. admission is free but please register:

foundationcenter.org/sanfrancisco/indartsf works/san josé, 451 south 1st street for full calendar of events and to see how you can participate:

workssanjose.org

408.286.6800, gallery@workssanjose.org

works/san josé is your community art and performance center—a non-profit creative laboratory dedicated to providing an environment where artists, audience, and ideas interact to expand the scope of cultural and artistic experience.

works/san josé is member supported and is funded in part by the city of san josé; community foundation silicon valley; the adobe foundation fund at silicon valley community foundation; and arts council silicon valley in partnership with the county of santa clara, the california arts council, and adobe systems, inc.